Mrs. Ascher Will Speak.

The prayer meeting held Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. J. Arthur Hull on Main street, will be unusually interesting, inasmuch as Mrs. Ascher will address the Sunday evangelist party and assembly.

HOUSEKEEPER WAS IN MISERY

'Twas Hard for Her to Stop Work, But This Texas Lady Says She Had to Go to Bed.—Helped by Cardui.

Salado, Texas.—"I suffered a great deal with womanly troubles," says Miss Ira Lillian Hart, of Route 1, this place. "I would, for a day or two, feel drowsy, stupid and lifeless; didn't feel like doing my work. I would suffer pains in my sides and back, and have very severe headaches."

"I am the housekeeper, and it was very hard for me to stop, but I would get in such misery I would have to go to bed."

"I heard of Cardui, and that it was good for this suffering."

"The very first bottle I took seemed to help me. I did not suffer near so much, so I sent for the second."

"It did so much good for me, I can't say enough for Cardui, for it certainly was a friend in need. I have recommended it to others, and gladly do so."

"I do not dread... time as I used to."

Women who feel the need of something to help relieve, or prevent, such troubles as Miss Hart mentions above, should profit by the experience of thousands of other women, who have taken Cardui with results which cause them to praise this purely vegetable, mild, harmless, tonic for women. Any druggist can supply you.—Advertisement.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Davis of Terre Haute, Ind., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. E. E. Clulow.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nash and a party of friends left Saturday morning for Galveston, Matamoros, Mexico, and other points.

Miss Hazel Gregg spent the weekend in Oklahoma City as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Wheeler.

Miss Betty West left Friday for St. Louis after a two-week visit with her sister, Mrs. George Green and Mr. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Brown and children, Miss Naomi and Maxine, and young W. E. Brown, Jr., have returned to their home in St. Louis after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Brown.

Miss Stella Fortier, 1319 South Carson avenue had for her Thanksgiving week-end guests, Miss Violet Edick and Miss Mollie Lu Stockbury of Shawnee. Miss Edick is a student at Kidd-Key college in Sherman, Texas, while Miss Stockbury is attending the University of Tulsa.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Stevenson and children of Pittsburgh, Pa., who have been visiting in the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Scott, will leave Wednesday for their home.

Mrs. George M. Canterbury has returned from Kansas City where she has been visiting her mother, Mrs. George M. Canterbury, who was called a fortnight ago by the death of a friend.

Jenks News

The third number of the school yearbook course which brought Bell, Harz, noted lecture, to the high school auditorium Saturday night, drew a large and appreciative audience.

H. G. Gish, who was appointed by the county commissioner last week as justice of the peace to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge H. P. Cooper, has qualified and assumed the duties of his new office, which also includes work of police court judge for the city of Jenks.

Prospects were never brighter for a successful basketball season for Jenks high school than this year. With plenty of material for a pennant winning team, Coach Wilcox is planning a long and strenuous trip for the boys during the Christmas holidays.

A movement has been launched for a community Christmas tree in Jenks, which will be one of the chief features of the town's "Good Fellow" program for the Yuletide season.

Final steps have been taken in the closing of a contract that puts Jenks on the Cotton Belt highway, a national tourist route connecting Kansas City and Dallas, via Tulsa. A fund of $250 was raised by the business men of Jenks to be used bearing expenses of making the route through this community.

A mass meeting has been called for Tuesday night in the auditorium of the high school building for the purpose of organizing Jenks business men in some sort of a community or commercial club through which the co-operation of all progressive citizens may be secured in boosting the town and community.

Prest-O-Lite
Storage Battery

Best Battery for Winter Use

COLD weather driving makes heavier demands upon any storage battery. Engines are stiff—oil is sluggish—gasoline vaporizes slowly—lights burn longer—and the severe cold tends to cause battery deterioration. Only a battery of maximum power and vitality can meet these demands.

The Prest-O-Lite Storage Battery has proven in the toughest of cold weather tests, to be by far the best battery for winter use.

Why be satisfied with anything short of the best? There's a Prest-O-Lite for every car.

Rub Backache Away

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen. That's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with something penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Lumber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years.—Advertisement.

NO PEACE DECISION

England Anxiously Awaiting for Next Move to Show Way Out of Present Irish Controversy

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Today was one of anxious waiting in England and Ireland for the next move in the Irish peace negotiations, with hope still prevailing that after the five months' truce and the prolonged conferences, some way out of the present impasse would be found.

So far as appears, the next definition of the statement will likely come tomorrow noon in Belfast, when Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, will read in the North Ireland parliament the statement agreed upon between him and Lloyd George giving the cause of the failure of the negotiations between them for establishment of an all-Ireland parliament.

Mr. Lloyd George will return from Chequers tomorrow, it is said, to arrange to show whatever course the Irish negotiations may take, and to prepare to go to Washington should conditions shape themselves favorably or the negotiations agree to a postponement of the conference.
